IN THE SOCIAL WORLD

Badger-Bryan Wedding a Pretty Home Ceremony.

COUNT VON WEDEL RETURNS

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Bell Leave for Fishing Trip in the Northwest. Mrs. Charles S. Francis and Daughter Are Home from European Trip. Miss Boardman Entertains.

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth C. Badger, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. Charles J. Badger, to Lieut. Commander Henry F. Bryan, U. S. N., took place yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the home of the late Rear Admiral W. T. Sampson, in New Hampshire avenue, which the Badgers have leased for the early summer. The ceremony was performed by Bishop Harding, of Washington, in the presence of the relatives of the bride and bridegroom and a few close friends. Capt. Badger was formerly superintendent of the Naval Academy at Annapolis, and is in Washington awaiting sailing orders for his three years' cruise. The house was handsomely decorated with palms and bride roses, and an orchestra played the wedding march and throughout the supper which followed. The bride was attended by Miss Esther Burns, a daughter of Medical Director Burns, stationed at Norfolk, as maid of honor, and the best man was Lieut. Commander Andrew T. Long, U. S. N. The ushers were Midshipmen Oscar Badger, of Annapolis, brother of the bride, and Mr. Raymond Durham, of New York. The bride, who was escorted and given in marriage by her father, wore a white lace robe over heavy white satin, with a tulle veil held by a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a shower of lilies of the valley. The maid of honor wore a gown of white tulle, handsomely embroidered, with a white hat trimmed with green, and carried a large bouquet of white and pink roses. A supper followed the ceremony, after which the bride and bridegroom left for their wedding trip. They will be at home temporarily at Annapolis, where the bridegroom has been stationed, but as he is on waiting orders their future residence is undetermined.

The Postmaster General, Hon. Frank H. Hitchcock, accompanied by Mr. Charles Norton, spent the week-end at Dublin, N. H., as the guests of the Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. Franklin MacVeigh.

Count von Wedel, counselor of the German Embassy, who has been abroad during the spring and early summer, returned to Washington yesterday. He will be charged d'affaires of Germany during the absence of Ambassador Count von Bernstorff, who will sail next Saturday for Germany to join the countess and their daughter, Countess Louise Alexandra, who are in their summer home in the Bavarian Alps.

Mr. Alfred Mitchell Inness, counselor of the British Embassy, and Viscount de Martel, second secretary of the French Embassy, sailed yesterday for the Adriatic for their homes abroad. They will both return here in the autumn.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Bell, of this city, who have spent the spring and early summer in their country place, "Twin Oaks," left Washington yesterday for a salmon fishing trip at Vancouver, B. C. They will stop en route for fishing on the Nipigon River at the head of Lake Superior. On their return they will stop at various fishing places on the lakes of Minnesota.

The marriage of Miss Lillian Gayle to Mr. J. Eugene Curtis, in the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. George B. Sheets, took place yesterday morning in the presence of the members of the immediate families. A wedding breakfast followed, and the bride and bridegroom left afterward for their wedding trip to Atlantic City. Rev. J. Luther Frantz performed the ceremony.

Mrs. P. Lee Phillips has returned from a several weeks' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lee, at Elkton, Va. Mr. and Mrs. Phillips will sail for Europe on Saturday. They will spend three weeks in England and then go on the Continent for the remainder of the visit, most of the time to be spent in France.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fitch Shepard and family have gone to Narragansett Pier.

Mrs. Charles S. Francis, wife of the United States Ambassador to Austria-Hungary and their daughter, Miss Harriet Francis, have arrived in this country for a two months' stay. After a short visit in their home at Troy, N. Y., they will go to their summer home at Manchester, Vt.

Miss Goldie McMullin was married yesterday to Mr. John H. Anderson. The ceremony took place at noon in the home of the bride, and was performed by Rev. J. M. Gill, pastor of the Rhode Island M. P. Church.

News has been received here of the death of Mr. Arthur Granville Langham, of Louisville, Ky. Mr. Langham was the uncle of the Baroness von Sternburg, widow of the late ambassador from Germany.

Mr. Justice and Mrs. McKenna are visiting in California. Their old home, where they have not been for twelve years. They are now in San Francisco visiting friends, and will spend all of the next two months visiting throughout the State. Justice McKenna came to Washington to Congress many years ago, and before his return he was promoted to the bench of the United States Supreme Court.

Miss Mabel Boardman, the intimate friend of Mrs. Taft, who is spending the summer at the summer home of her parents, at Manchester-by-the-Sea, is entertaining extensively there this season. She gave a reception and dance Tuesday evening for some ninety guests from among the younger set of the North Shore. Her guest of honor was Miss Helen Taft, only daughter of the President. This was the first of the really smart functions of this season at Manchester, which promises to be a red letter one because of the presence of the family of the President and the expectation that the President himself will spend the late summer there.

Representative and Mrs. Herbert Parsons, of New York, have arrived at Newport from their splendid place in the Berkshires, near Pittsfield, to be the guests of Mrs. Parsons's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clews, of New York.

Miss Meta Graham, of this city, has gone to Baltimore, where she is visiting her sister, Miss Ida Graham.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Moncure, Mr. Henry Moncure and daughters, and Mrs. Edward Keese, of this city, were guests at the wedding on July 14 of Miss Virginia Buchanan Ashby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Ashby, of Stafford County, Va., to Mr. Ernest Livingston Younce, of Maryland. The ceremony was performed at 4:30 in the afternoon in Aquia Church, Rev. E. B. Burrell. The bride and bridegroom will live in Hagerstown, Md.

Miss Alice Taylor Buchey is the guest of Miss Gaudy, daughter of Col. Gaudy, chief medical officer at West Point Military Academy, where she will be one of a house party for the next ten days. Miss Buchey will then visit her cousin, Mrs. Howard, at Chatham, near Fredericksburg, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Tyler, of the Thomas, leave to-day for Marblehead Neck, Mass., for a stay of several weeks, later going to Twilight Park, in the Catskills.

At 8:30 o'clock last evening a very pretty home wedding was celebrated at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Lloyd, 1247 Girard street, Brookland, D. C., the contracting parties being Mr. Norman A. Winn, of Klemm, Fla., and Miss Alice L. Lloyd. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Edgar Cordell Powers, pastor of the Brookland M. E. Church.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Hines, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Lloyd, W. S. Lloyd, and F. G. Hines.

MRS. E. GRIFFITH DEAD.

Funeral Services for Scientist's Wife to Be Held To-day.

Mrs. Emmeline Griffith, wife of David Griffith, of the farming division of the Department of Agriculture, died Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock at her home in Takoma Park, D. C. Mrs. Griffith was born in New York, but was for years a resident of Minneapolis, Minn. In 1905 she came to Washington in company with her husband, who was transferred from the Minnesota Experiment Station of the Agricultural Department to Washington. Funeral services will be held from the family residence this morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. Thomas C. Clark, pastor of the Takoma Park Presbyterian Church will officiate. The interment will take place in Rock Creek cemetery.

TAFT VIEWS FILMS

Moving Pictures of Unveiling of Statue at Petersburg.

WERE EXHIBITED YESTERDAY

Mr. Taft and Party Entertained by Management of Maryland Theater. Large Crowd Hears of His Expected Visit—Laughs at the "Possum Pictures"—Crowd Gathers Early.

The President of the United States at a moving picture show! This was an actual occurrence at the Maryland Theater, on Ninth street, yesterday afternoon.

On May 19 last, the President attended the unveiling of the monument to the Pennsylvania soldiers on the Petersburg, Va., battlefield, and was entertained royally by the Virginians. Of course the ubiquitous moving picture man was present also, and the result of his exertions was placed on exhibition for the first time yesterday afternoon. As Mr. Taft figures extensively in the pictures, Manager Noonan, of the Maryland, extended an invitation to the President to view the films, which he accepted. The exhibition was fixed for 2:30, the time when Mr. Taft thought he would best be able to get away from the many duties which are keeping him in Washington during the present hot weather.

Crowd Gathers Early. Long before the appointed hour, however, the news leaked out that for the first time in history the President of the United States was going to honor a moving picture theater with his presence. The result was that a crowd of considerable proportions gathered in Ninth street, between F and G, where the Maryland is located. And every moment that the President was delayed added its quota of humanity to those who stopped to get a glimpse of the Chief Executive, or lingered to wonder what was going on in that vicinity.

The windows of the Patent Office building, across the street, were soon filled with clerks, who saw fit to leave off attending to their duties long enough to tender a greeting to the President. Cameras, both official and amateur, were leveled from every angle.
